

Dr Johnathan Wee

BDS (Singapore)

Certificate in Endodontics (Loma Linda, USA)

Practice Restricted to Endodontics

Dr Johnathan Wee graduated from National University of Singapore (NUS) School of Dentistry in 1995. His career in dentistry started in Institute of Dental Health (IDH), which was responsible for the provision of community dental services to the public. Subsequently he joined the Singapore Armed Forces (SAF) Medical Corps and was awarded a scholarship to pursue specialist training in Endodontics. Dr Wee chose and was accepted for traineeship in Loma Linda University (LLU), USA where he trained under the direct mentorship of Dr Mahmoud Torabinejad, Dr James Simon and Dr Leif Bakland.

Upon completion of his specialist program in 2000, Dr Wee returned to Singapore and have been practicing endodontics exclusively since. He continues to maintain close ties with LLU and is an Assistant Professor there. Dr Wee also teaches endodontics part time to the undergraduate and postgraduate at NUS.

Dr Johnathan Wee has been a member of the American Association of Endodontics (AAE) and the Society of Endodontist Singapore (SES) since 1998. His key interest areas in endodontics include dental trauma, endodontic retreatment and post endodontic restorative outcomes.

Dr Johnathan Wee has also been a member of the International Association for Dental Traumatology (IADT) since 1998.